

NAKAMURA Akiko

Japanese Senior Consultant

Ms. Nakamura graduated in 2003 from law school of Japanese Seinan Gakuin University with Degree of Bachelor majoring in international relationship law (she also pursued her study in China during 2000 to 2002). In 2005, she graduated from Japanese Graduated School of KITAKYUSHU with Master of Language and Culture, majoring in Chinese.

Before being a member of Leezhao Law Office, Ms. Nakamura had passed the Japanese Education Ability Examination and then was engaged in Japanese language teaching and thesis guidance, etc., working for a university in Zhejiang province and was recognized in the circle of education.

Ms. Nakamura has the background of study in China for a long time and is engaged in a long-term Japanese education in China. After being a member of Leezhao Law Office, she had conducted various legal documents translation. Based upon a great amount of work, she has reached the advanced level of Chinese language ability and Chinese-Japanese translation, and specialized in translation of various contracts, reports, legal opinions related to foreign invested enterprises.

Ms. Nakamura has participated in translation of legal thesis, legislations and abstracts which are published on the website of several legal periodicals and certain large consultancy institution in Japan, as well as legal periodicals (monthly / weekly) issued to the clients by the law firms providing foreign related legal service.

Ms. Nakamura works as a bilingual consultant of Japanese and Chinese.